

Urban-Expression Choreographers Teaching Application

We are happy to hear that you are interested in teaching an Urban-Expression dance class this summer! There are many competitive applicants applying to become a teacher this summer so we appreciate your patience as we review all of our applicants. If you are selected as a teacher you will have the opportunity to teach one dance class this summer based on your availability. If you want to teach an Urban-Expression dance class this summer you must complete the following:

1. Sign up for www.TheDanceLink.ca
2. Review and understand the terms outlined in this job description
3. Sign a media consent form and liability form before teaching a dance class
4. Submit your resume, this application and any recent dance videos you choreographed, to info@urban-expression.com

As an Urban-Expression teacher you must agree to the following terms and conditions:

- You must have at least 5 people pre-registered for my dance class in order to be eligible for payment.
- You must be at least 18 years of age to teach a dance class.
- The Urban-Expression summer dance classes are mostly hip hop but we are open to any dance style!
- You must operate in a calm and collective manner at all times.
- You must be professional at all times in the studio and not say or do anything derogatory that may give Urban-Expression a bad reputation or upset any Urban-Expression clients.
- Your payment and compensation will be discussed once you have been selected to teach a class. Your compensation and personal information should be kept confidential.
- You must be a confident and experienced dancer/choreographer.
- You are required to build original choreography for all dance pieces taught in your class.
- All classes run an hour maximum and this hour should include: 5 min warm up, 40 min dance class, 10 min group videotaping and then debriefing.
- The music played at the dance class should not be offensive while still being consistent with the teaching style.
- You must come prepared to class by being 10 minutes early, wearing the proper clothing and having your choreographed songs on a mobile device/ laptop with Auxiliary access.

If you have any questions please feel free to message us via social media or email us at info@Urban-Expression.com

We wish you the best of luck in the application process!
